Located in the heart of South East England and covering parts of Kent, Sussex and Surrey, the High Weald is one of 46 designated Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty across the UK. It is a medieval landscape of rolling hills studded with sandstone outcrops, dense woodland, small, irregular-shaped fields, scattered farmsteads and ancient routeways.

The High Weald Walking Festival is a collaboration between a number of local branches of the Rambler's and the High Weald AONB Partnership.

With breathtaking views, fascinating history and an extensive network of footpaths and ancient byways, the High Weald is a walker's paradise. Whether you're an avid Rambler, nature spotter or archaeology buff or just want to get out in the fresh air and explore your local area, the High Weald Walking Festival has something for everyone to enjoy.
